PHOTOS OF ADVENT LUTHERAN CHILD CENTER

By Heidi Perry, Director

August brought us lots of hot weather and, towards the end, lots of smoke as well. We were able to get in some great outdoor time and fields trips before we had to start staying inside! Always so thankful we have gym to use for our gross motor play when the smoke hits us!

Even though we run year round, September marks the beginning of the new school year for us at the Child Center. We have been busy trying to get all the paperwork ready, supplies purchased, and enrollment set! Hopefully, the smoke starts clearing out soon and that would just make everything perfect for another great year!

PASTOR MATT'S CORNER

By Pastor Matthew Larson

For the next few months I will be using a resource from Central Lutheran Church that was put together about 8 years ago. It has to do with the different parts of our worship service, or liturgy. The first two I want to share are Confession and Forgiveness and Thanksgiving for Baptism. Both are used as preludes to the liturgy of the church:

Confession and Forgiveness

Most Lutherans in this country consider public confession and absolution an essential characteristic of Lutheran Sunday worship. Strangely enough, Luther did not agree! In Luther's Church experience, there was no public confession and absolution; private confession was not only the norm, it was mandatory. For example, those who wished to receive Holy Communion were required to make a private confession before a priest and complete their penance before communing.

Luther vigorously disagreed with this practice and held that there should be no such thing as mandatory confession, and no such thing as penance. He felt that believers should go to confession only when they felt the need for forgiveness and had specific sins to confess. Luther insisted that private confession and absolution are a gift from God, and that we should use it whenever we need it. He did not feel that private confession should be eliminated. In fact, he devoted an entire section of the Small Catechism to it.

Over the centuries, however, Lutherans increasingly neglected the practice of private confession. It finally became so rare that Lutheran churches found it necessary to provide an alternative. Thus began the practice of public, general confession and absolution just before the beginning of Sunday worship. This practice became so common that people began to view it as the norm and consider it mandatory.

Periodically, then, we need some reminders:

Public confession and forgiveness is not part of the historic liturgy-it is a preparation for that liturgy. Public confession is a useful and effective preparation for worship; it reminds us of our absolute dependence upon God's grace as we approach in worship. It is, however, an option-never a requirement.

Private confession is not only available-it is the preferred option for relief of the troubled sinner's conscience.

Thanksgiving for Baptism

It is through the Sacrament of Baptism that we become members of Christ's Church; it is a initiation into the community of faith. Is it not then a fitting preparation for worship to us the Thanksgiving for Baptism to open our hearts to receive the Word and Meal? Perhaps many of us don't remember when we were baptized, but God does, and the Holy Spirit calls us through our baptism to be his children and to worship him this all our lives. If you are not yet baptized, does that mean that you are excluded from giving thanks for the sacrament of Baptism? The happy answer is no; everyone who has a living faith in God whether baptized yet or not, has the Holy Spirit working in their lives. It is with steadfast certainty that you can believe the Holy Spirit will bring you to the font in his time.

When we prepare for worship using Thanksgiving for Baptism, we are encouraged to make the sign of the cross, the sign that marked us at Baptism. We are reminded that we are clothed with God's mercy and forgiveness through the waters of baptism.

In the prayer, we are lead through a brief history of God's use of water and the Word. We hear of creation and God's Spirit moving over the waters and how he delivered Noah and his family from the waters of the flood. We are reminded of how God lead the people of Israel through the waters as they were delivered from slavery. We visualize Jesus in the river Jordan being baptized by John and anointed with the Holy Spirit.

The prayer concludes by giving thanks for the water which sustains all life but most importantly, we are compelled to give thanks for the waters of baptism which provides forgiveness of sins and bring us new life through Jesus Christ our Savior.

After the prayer has ended we are ready to join our hearts in the words and music of the Gathering Song knowing we are one in the community of faith because of God's gift of Baptism.

HAPPY HELPERS

By Forrest Diehl

I sure enjoyed Pastor Matt's article in the August 2018 (last month's) issue of our Newsletter. It reminded me of a poem by John Hay:

Another Summer

Every summer is a growing season
When we experience something special
As a kind of unexpected gift
That affirms our self-hood
In our relationships with God,
Ourselves, and others.
It could have happened with
Our parents, our children, our relatives,
Our friends, or a stranger,
Maybe words from a book,
Or an encounter with nature;
We might call it a revelation,
A seedling in our consciousness
Rooting itself in our inner world;
Something amid the seasons of life
To which we shall return
Again, and again,
And find – we too keep growing.

Marlene and I had a great flight to Alaska, eight-day visit, and return flight to Spokane with friends from Spokane, but the flights and visit wasn't without "hic-ups" We visited and stayed with friends in Soldotna, located on the Kenai Peninsula. On one of the flights to Kenai, we missed the boarding call, but were successful in securing seats on the following flight. On the return flight to Spokane we were not as fortunate; the flight from Anchorage was delayed which resulted in us missing our flight from SeaTac to Spokane. We spent the night at the airport - slumped in chairs and stretched-out on the floor. We caught the 5:00 A.M. Horizon Airline flight to Spokane the following morning. While staying in Soldotna, we fished for Sockeye in the Kenai River (this year's returning Kenai sockeye salmon count was one of the lowest in history), went on a sight-seeing charter boat out of Seward, viewing the Kenai Fjords' wildlife, glaciers, and fauna (great weather), and chartered a boat and went halibut fishing in the Gulf of Alaska - 3 hour boat ride to fishing area (terrible weather and seas / Marlene and her friend were sick most of the time). All in all, though, we had a great time and we returned with two 50 lb. boxes of mostly salmon fillets, with a few halibut fillets.

Because of summer activities and travelling, my attendance to Happy Helper meetings has been "spotty". Here is what I know has been accomplished: rehung pictures in conference room; installed new doorstop on Quilter's room door; adjusted door closure speed on Child Center laundry room door; repaired window lock in Child Center classroom; cleaned sink drain in Child Center classroom; installed wall electrical cord wall fasteners in Child Center classroom; installed replacement fluorescent bulbs in Child Center classroom light fixtures; cleaned air vent/fan in ladies restroom (south hallway); sprayed weeds at naomi; replaced stool in sound station area in sanctuary; replaced filters in air handlers located on the roof; checked all furnace and air conditioner filters; filled water reservoir to the water feature located in the outside patio area; changed wording on Broadway reader board sign; organized and cleaned pew area in sanctuary; cleaned debris and litter from parking lot; swept sidewalks; etc. The aforementioned is what I know was accomplished – but much more was done. Since I don't know who did what – here is a list of names of the Happy Helpers: Harry Benton, Linda Camp, Mel Carlson, Steve Emig, Jim Gunby, George Harrison, Don Hodge, Clancy Howard, Bill Johnson, Don Newland, Ed Orr, Ken Otteman, Roger Scheurer, Kent Tibbetts, Bill Thurston, Wes Todd, Arne Weinman, Wade Wipperling, Leroy York. It doesn't really matter who accomplished a particular task – it was all done to the Glory of God!

The Happy Helpers meet each Thursday morning, 8:00 A.M., at the church. Coffee, tea, and "goodies are provided.

This month Ken Otteman provided the goodies. Thanks Ken! Visitors and new members are always welcome. If you can't make it by 8:00 A.M., come anytime. Usually, we finish talking by 9:00 A.M. and working by 11:00 A.M.

THE RETURN OF THE BIBLE STUDY

Yes, Pastor Matt's Bible Study will be resuming starting at different times. The Wednesday morning group will begin September 12th at 9:30am. Because of all the events in September the Sunday morning group will not begin until October 7th. Both of the studies are going to engage with the book of Exodus. It would not hurt Pastor Matt's feelings if you were to read a bit of it before the study begins!

LADIES MONTHLY BIRTHDAY LUNCHEON: On the third Saturday of each month we are joining together to celebrate those women who have birthdays in that month. We meet at 11:30 a.m. at The Max at the Mirabeau Hotel for a no-host luncheon. We will then welcome our New Faces during the worship service on September 30th. Wondering why we call it New Faces? In the last decade or two the idea of "membership" has become a stumbling block for some, but not for others. We have some amazingly active people in our congregation who have not "officially" joined as members, for their own reasons. However, we still want to acknowledge their presence and activity with us soooo, New Faces. We love to have "members" of the church and we also love to see all the new faces!!

Holden Village

We have been given confirmation of our group at Holden for October 12-15. Pastor Matt is currently pursuing Holden with even more names. We may have a group as large as 29 people. We have 21 reserved but hope to have more. Registration and Deposit information will be coming soon.

If you are interested, contact Pastor Matt.

SUPER YOUTH TEAM

By April Marshall

The school year is just about to start, and that means Sunday School for our elementary-aged kids will also be starting back up! The first day of Sunday School will be September 9th. We like to have a “soft” start time of 9:15 am. If you are unfamiliar, we keep the kids with us through the beginning part of worship and then join worship in the sanctuary during the sharing of the peace. Our classes try to follow the same scripture you are hearing during the worship— we just bring it down to a level kids can understand while making it an enjoyable, often hands-on experience.

We offer two classes during worship: One class is Pre-k (age 4 and up) through 2nd grade taught by myself and Missy Bliesner and the other classes is 3rd through 6th grade taught by Wes Todd, Bob Bendel, and Anna Tsakarestos.

Pastor Matt also teaches a Confirmation course for 7th and 8th graders, and Kara Wilson and Norm Leatha lead the high school Bible study at Starbucks every Sunday after church.

There is no 2nd Sunday Youth and Family Fun Day scheduled for September, but watch for an exciting activity in October!

We hope to have another fun-filled, educational school year for the youth at Advent!
